HOCH'S REMAINS ARE AN ECONOMICAL REFUSED BY SEXTONS

No One Wishes to Receive Bones of Windy City's Bluebeard.

chicago, February 24.—The body of Johann Hoch lay to-day in the county morgue at Dunning, Illinois, while the undertaker, who had agreed to inter the corpse at his own expense, and the two dergymen who were on the scanfold yesterday when Hoch was hanged, vainly tried to find a burdat place.

After repeated efforts to secure a final roating-place for the body of Hoch in one of the city cemeteries, the two clergymen finally despaired, and the body was interred in the Potters Freid adjoining the county poor farm at Dunning.

The authorities of Waldnein Cemetery refused to allow Hoch to be buried there, as did the officials of Forest Home Cemetery and those of St. Lucas Cemetery.

To-day cemetery after cemetery was asked by telephone to permit the burial of Hoch, but all of them refused, saying that the owners of cemetery lots objected to the interment of those who had been hanged. It was not expected that objection would be offered at Waldhelm, as in that cemetery Spies, Parsons, Engugard Fischer, the executed anarchists, are buried, but the officers of the Walthelm Cemetery declared that the burial of the saarchists had brought such application oricumstances would they aver again give burial to one who had been hanged.

CHURCH IN MORNING: THEATRE AT NIGHT

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—in an address before the Actors' Church Alliance at its annual meeting yesterday Miss Saran Truax, leading woman in a theatrical company appearing in Chicago, advocated the curtailmen of Sunday religious services in church to morning services only As a substitute for evening services she proposed that church-goers attend theatrical performance.

"There are many persons who can attend the theatre only on Sunday," she said. "What can they do? The ministers expect them to come to church, but the church cannot offer to them the diversion to which they are entitled after a long, hard week of work. Therefore, let the people go to the church in the morning and to the theatre at night." (By Associated Press.)
